

Discover 1609

150
C-9
200th Anniversary of the Discovery of Lake Champlain

Collection of Québec Musée National des Beaux-Arts du Québec

Navigate Through History

MAIN STREET LANDING PRESENTS

THE LAKE CHAMPLAIN MARITIME MUSEUM'S EXCITING
EXPLORATION OF THE FASCINATING HISTORY OF LAKE CHAMPLAIN

Enjoy exciting programs and speakers during the week of July 5-12 in Main Street Landing's Film House at 60 Lake Street on Burlington's Waterfront.

-
- July 5 7pm Atlantic Crossing and Friends Concert
July 11 9pm Enjoy traditional songs and music from New England, the Celtic British Isles, and Canada, with a multi-media show by LCMM Director Art Cohn featuring stories, rare early images, and songs of Lake Champlain.
-
- July 5 3pm Welcome the schooner Lois McClure to Burlington
Come to Perkins Pier and welcome the replica canal schooner Lois McClure. Public boarding from 4pm to 6pm, followed by July 6th through July 13th tours from 10am to 6pm daily.
-
- July 6 7pm Lake Champlain: A Natural History Mike Winslow, Staff Scientist, Lake Champlain Committee
Join us for an exploration of the forces that shape Lake Champlain and the creatures that call it home with special focus on issues that affect the lake and how you can make a difference for its future.
-
- July 7 7pm An Alternative View of the French Discovery of Lake Champlain
Frederick M. Wiseman, PhD, explores new findings on the French arrival in the Champlain Basin, and shows, through video and artifacts, how Champlain's expedition can be seen as originating in the foreign policy of a Native American alliance.
-
- July 8 7pm Revolutionary War in the Champlain Valley Arthur Cohn, Director, LCMM
Join Art Cohn for a memorable tour of Lake Champlain's tumultuous Revolutionary War years, Benedict Arnold's heroic actions, and the stories shipwrecks tell of this pivotal chapter in Lake Champlain history.
-
- July 9 7pm Adventures of Canal Schooner Lois McClure Erick Tichonuk, LCMM Replica Coordinator
First Mate Erick Tichonuk shares his experiences aboard replica canal schooner Lois McClure. Historic and modern photographs illustrate the exploits of schooners old and new.
-
- July 10 7pm Shipwrecks of Lake Champlain Adam Kane, LCMM Nautical Archaeologist
Hear Lake Champlain's most harrowing shipwreck stories from the Revolutionary War to the present day. A memorable tour of what lies beneath the waves told through slides, drawings, and video.
-

ALL EVENTS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
LIMITED SEATING, ARRIVE EARLY

For more information contact The Lake Champlain Maritime Museum | 802-475-2022 | www.lcmm.org